

DRY AGENT'S WIFE DUCKS 3D COURT TRIP IN WEEK

Continuing her custom of ignoring a mere summons, Mrs. Adele J. Tierney of 1710 Montgomery ave., Bronx, tumultuous young wife of a dry snooper, failed to show up in Manhattan Traffic court yesterday to face a charge of passing a "stop" signal at Madison ave. and 54th st., on Nov. 28.

It was the third traffic violation on which she was summoned during the week.

Her attorney, Samuel J. Seigel, offered to plead guilty for her and pay her fine. Patrolman Leonard Connor, who gave her the summons, demurred.

"She abused me on the street," he told Magistrate Andrew Macrery. "She cursed me and told me she wished my father would drop dead."

WAITS 17 YEARS TO DRIVE JOHN D.

Vincent Frasca, who applied for the position of personal chauffeur to John D. Rockefeller seventeen years ago, finally won his objective yesterday. The son of an employe at the Rockefeller estate at Tarrytown, N. Y., Vincent displayed marked ability in a mechanical way nearly twenty years ago. He was later given a position in the garage and yesterday, when Frank Phillips, the millionaire oil king's personal chauffeur, resigned to go to California, Frasca was appointed to take his place.

ZEP COMING AGAIN

Berlin, Dec 7 (AP).—The Hamburg correspondent of the Telegraphen Union today quoted Dr. Hugo Eckener as saying the Graf Zeppelin would make another flight from Friedrichshafen to Lakehurst, N. J.
