Complainants Say They Lost Eye Each in Beating.

Patrolman Harry J. Coleman, of the West 135th station, pleaded not guilty yesterday in General Sessions to two indictments charging assault, and was admitted to $1,000 bail for trial. Patrolmen John Dent and Simeon Tierney pleaded not guilty to the same charge and also were admitted to bail.

The complainants, Harry Jaffe, of 176 East 123d street, and Michael H. Taylor, of 213 West 120th street, alleged they were attacked by Coleman on separate occasions, each losing an eye in the encounter. It was alleged Patrolman Dent figured in the alleged assault on Jaffe and Tierney and in that of Taylor.
