

Cunningham of Washington, D. C., and will be a guest of Midshipman G. A. Hyatt at Annapolis.

Eugene L. Sullivan, formerly of 74 McDonough st., sailed on the Paris Sept. 24.

MISS SLEVIN TO WED.

Miss Elizabeth Hyacinth Slevin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Slevin of 295 New York ave., will become the bride of Eugene Francis Martin, son of Thomas Francis Martin, of 619 Eastern Parkway, in St. Gregory's Church, the Rev. John I. Whelan officiating, at 6 o'clock, Oct. 18.

The bride will be attended by Miss Margery P. Slevin and I. Francis Martin will act as best man. The ushers are to be John J. Grace, Albert P. Grace, and John I. Slevin.

LEWIS—TIERNEY.

A wedding of last Wednesday was that of Miss Isabelle M. Tierney, daughter of Mrs. S. Beattie Tierney of Manhattan, and Harry W. Lewis, son of Thomas Lewis of Brooklyn, which took place last Wednesday morning in the Church of the Holy Name. The ceremony was followed by a breakfast at the Marcellus Hotel. The bride was attended by Miss Josephine Foley and Sidney V. Lewis was best man for his brother.

MISS WILSON TO WED.

Miss Dorothy A. Wilson, daughter

Party of Young Women Who Spent 60 Days in Car Touring Country

Miss Smith, Brooklyn Girl, Second From Left.

7 Young Women Motor 6,200

SOVIET HAS GUARDED WELL ART TREASURES OF THE HERMITAGE

Famous Galleries to Be Seen in Pre-War Magnificence at Petrograd.

Petrograd, Sept. 1—The Hermitage, one of the greatest art galleries in the world, exists today in all its pre-war magnificence as a visible refutation not only of rumors that Russia's finest paintings had been destroyed or stolen during the revolution, but of those adventurers who occasionally have peddled in New York and Paris supposedly original paintings from its collection.

Small groups of schoolchildren, piloted through the galleries by teachers; a few art students; occasional proletarian enthusiasts, and now and then a foreigner who strays into Petrograd are about the only visitors to the galleries, and they seem lost in its spacious rooms. But the great paintings still are on the splendid walls; the rare porcelains and Greek vases of priceless antiquity are still

BEQUES

Under the will of V. Brower, of Brooklyn, the Association of $1,000. Monetary president of the Association interested in the building in 1918 and in its building in 1919. The children

F
Largest