

Jan 4th 1907

Dear Grand

I just got back to New York have been away 3 days meet me without fail Saturday Jan 5th at 2:30 sharp cor 34th St and 3 ave Dont fail have supper with me Bet all the money you got if you lose I will make good Bet Hats Pots
and Every thing you got Dont say any thing about this letter you got a sure thing - my girls sister will be down Saturday to stand up with her sister so I hope

You will not stand me up cor 34th st and 3rd Wed 2 30 sharp

Send me a despatch
just as soon as you receive this and I will pay you for it tomorrow - dont say a word about this.

Your uncle,

Joe

Joe Henry

150 - E 34th - st

Answer at once

Get your wages safe
Bet

Don't fail
Pat

I think this is the most amusing letter of the whole collection
It is from Joseph Tierney (Dad's uncle) and known as the Black Sheep of the family. He is asking Dad to be the best man at his wedding (Dad being all of 21 years old.)
and also telling his nephew to bet everything on a horse.
(Hats or Hots ^{Pats?} ~~or PATS~~) It almost seems that betting on the horse
was more urgent than the wedding.

5/92

WR